

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Bayelsa State: October-November 2017

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns of conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends August-October 2017

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), reported incidents during the period included criminality, militancy, cult violence, political tensions, and violence affecting women and girls (VAWG).

Violent Criminality: In August, gunmen reportedly attacked the home of a former acting governor of Bayelsa state in Yenagoa, the state capital. In September, pirates reportedly attacked a passenger boat and killed a man and a woman in Brass LGA. Separately, pirates reportedly ambushed a security patrol team and killed a policeman and an operative of the Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) in Southern Ijaw. In another incident, gunmen attacked a police security checkpoint and killed a police sergeant, and made away with weapons in Ogbia LGA. In October, four robbery suspects were reportedly killed during a shoot out with the police in Yenagoa.

Criminality was a key driver of Violence Affecting Women and Girls (VAWG) in the state during the period. Crime, particularly piracy affects the safety and livelihoods of women and girls.

Militancy: In August, militants reportedly killed four soldiers and a civilian in Ekeremor LGA. The militants allegedly ambushed the soldiers along the waterways. Following the incident, the Joint Task Force (JTF) code-named 'Operation Delta Safe' commenced a military operation in the area.

In addition to the impact of militancy on the livelihoods of women and girls, counter-insurgency operations by the security forces also affect the human rights and safety of women and girls.

Cult Violence: In September, the corpses of two young men suspected to been killed in cult-related attacks were discovered by the police near a drinking spot in Yenagoa.

Political Violence: In August, two persons were reportedly killed during a clash between two factions of the All Progressives Congress (APC) in Yenagoa. The clash reportedly occurred during the inauguration of the acting chairman of the Bayelsa state chapter of the APC

Other Violence Affecting Women and Girls (VAWG): In August, a 33-year old woman was reportedly killed by her husband in Yenagoa. In September, a 47-year old man reportedly killed an 18-year old sister of his wife in Yenagoa. The man allegedly killed and buried the baby boy delivered by the girl, in an attempt to cover up the crime.

Other: In October, a 13-year old male secondary school student was reportedly killed by a police corporal in Yenagoa, the state capital.
