

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Imo State: November-December 2017

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends September-November 2017

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), there has been a rise in violent fatalities in the state since October 2017. Incidents reported during this period included criminality, cult violence, protests, domestic violence, and child trafficking.

Violent Criminality: In September, a 16-year old illegal arms dealer was reportedly arrested by the police in Owerri LGA. A large cache of weapons was recovered from the suspect. Separately, a Catholic priest was reportedly abducted and killed by gunmen in Orlu LGA. In October, a 23-year old member of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) was killed by gunmen in Owerri Municipal. Separately, a man was stabbed to death by his landlord during a disagreement in Owerri North. In November, two robbers were reportedly shot dead by operatives of the police Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS) in Mbatoli LGA. Separately, the police reportedly killed two robbers during a shootout in Orlu LGA.

Criminality during this period also involved violence affecting women and girls (VAWG).

In October, for instance, the corpse of a 63-year old woman was discovered in a forest in Ohaji/Egbema LGA. The forest is reportedly a hideout for kidnappers and cultists.

Gang/Cult Violence: In October, a 24-year old commercial motorcyclist was reportedly killed and buried in a forest by members of Iceland cult group in Ohaji/Egbema LGA. The corpse of the victim was later exhumed by the police. Separately, two cultists who were involved in kidnapping were reportedly killed in a gun battle with the police in Ohaji/Egbema LGA.

Domestic Violence/Child Trafficking: In October, a man was killed by his wife in Mbatoli LGA. The woman reportedly poured acid on the victim. In Ikeduru LGA, the police reportedly arrested a couple for stealing and selling two children.

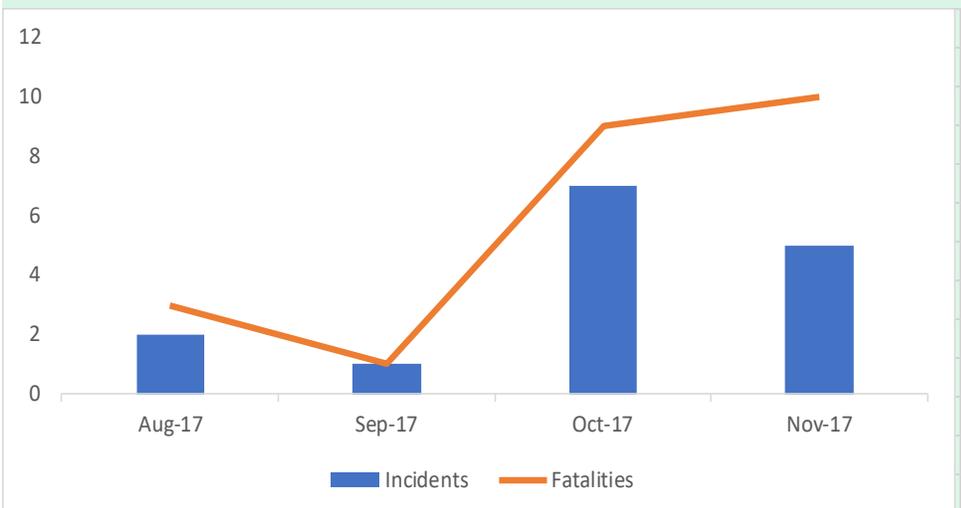

Violent Protests: In September, a traditional ruler was reportedly attacked by youths over a leadership tussle in Isiala Mbatoli LGA. In November, a young man was reportedly killed by a traditional ruler during a disagreement in Mbatoli LGA. The incident led to a protest by youth, who burned down an oil mill and vehicles.

Recent Incidents or Issues, December 2017

Incidents during the month related mainly to violent protests and political tensions.

Violent Protest: Five people were reportedly injured and 10 tricycles destroyed during a clash between tricycle operators and officials of the state Environmental Transformation Committee (ENTRACO) in Owerri Municipal LGA. The clash was triggered by the state government ban on the use of tricycles in the metropolis.

Others: Four members of the Movement for the Actualization of the Sovereign State of Biafra (MASSOB) were reported killed during a clash between two factions of the group in Unuimo LGA. Separately, there was tension in the state following the reported suspension of the Majority Leader of the Imo State House of Assembly in Owerri, the state capital.

Prognosis

Incidents during the period related mainly to criminality, cult violence, violent protests, and child trafficking. Peace Agents must continue to monitor the situation closely and respond appropriately.
