

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Rivers State: November-December 2017

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends September-November 2017

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), there was a spike in violent fatalities in Rivers state in November 2017. As indicated in the graph below, there has been a rise in lethal violence in the state since September 2017. Incidents reported during this period included communal tensions, gang/cult violence, militancy, and other criminal activities.

Violent Criminality: In September, a ward chairman of the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) was reportedly assassinated in Obio/Akpor LGA. In another incident, security operatives reportedly engaged militants in a gun battle and rescued five kidnapping victims in Ogba/Egbema/Ndoni LGA. Many criminal incidents during the period involved violence affecting women and girls (VAWG).

Militancy/Cult Violence: In September, three were reportedly shot dead by suspected cultists in Ikwerre LGA. In October, members of the Iceland cult group reportedly attacked a community and killed 14 people in Obio/Akpor LGA. In November, 10 were reportedly killed during a gun battle between militants and a vigilante group in Ogba/Egbema/Ndoni LGA. The vigilante group ambushed the militants, who were fleeing the area, and engaged them in a gun battle. Separately, security forces reportedly killed six militants who double as cultists in Ogba/Egbema/Ndoni LGA. Security forces raided the hideout of the militants following the killing of three members of a local vigilante group. In a related incident, soldiers raided the house of a militant who doubles as a kidnapper and assassin in Ogba/Egbema/Ndoni LGA. During the raid, 10 human skulls and five corpses were discovered in the house.

Gang wars and cult clashes in the state often involved VAWG. In October, for example, five women, including a nursing mother, were among the victims when cultists attacked a community in Obio/Akpor LGA. .

Communal Tensions: In September, three were reportedly killed during a clash involving supporters of the Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB), members of the Hausa community, and soldiers in Oyiabo LGA. A policeman was reportedly killed in reprisal. Separately, tensions were reportedly heightened following a renewed leadership tussle in Andoni LGA.

Others: In October, a youth was reportedly killed by operatives of the police Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS) in Obio/Akpor LGA.

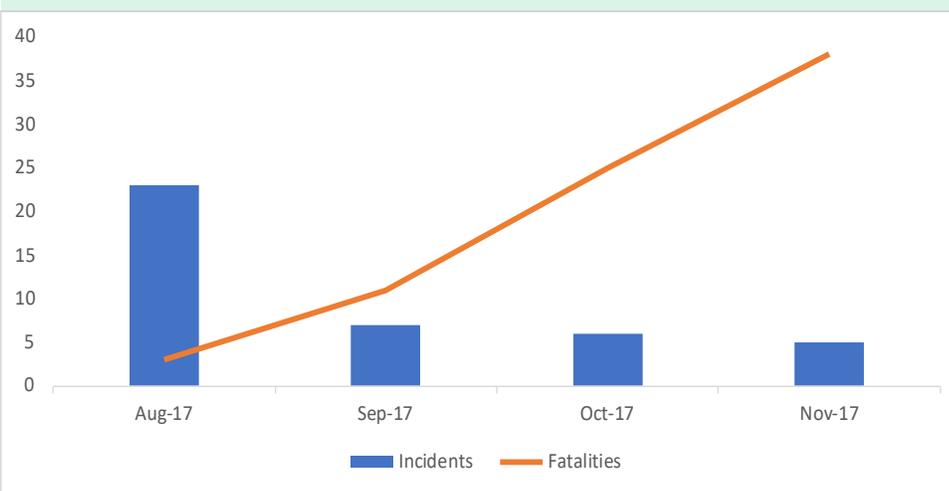

Also, in November, three youth were reportedly killed by operatives of SARS in Khana LGA. The youth were killed when they attempted to stop the security personnel from escorting locally refined petroleum products through their community.

Recent Incidents or Issues, December 2017

Incidents during the month mainly related to violent criminality.

Violent Criminality: Soldiers reportedly killed three robbers who attempted to steal army uniforms from a military base in Emohua LGA. In Obio/Akpor LGA, four gunmen who were disguised as operatives of the police Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS) were reportedly killed by operatives of the Federal Special Anti-Robbery Squad (F-SARS). In Port Harcourt, two policemen were reportedly killed by hoodlums, while they were patrolling the area. Also, in Port Harcourt, another policeman was reportedly killed by gunmen. A vigilante was also shot during the incident.
