

Conflict Incident Monthly Tracker

Akwa Ibom State: May-June 2019

Background

This monthly tracker is designed to update Peace Agents on patterns and trends in conflict risk and violence, as identified by the Integrated Peace and Development Unit (IPDU) early warning system, and to seek feedback and input for response to mitigate areas of conflict.

Patterns and Trends

March-May 2019

According to Peace Map data (see Figure 1), there was an increase in lethal violence in Akwa Ibom in May 2019. Akwa Ibom was one of the most violent states in the Niger Delta during this period (see Figure 2). Reported incidents during this period included communal conflict, criminality, cult violence, domestic violence, and protest.

Communal conflict: In May, eight people, including fishermen, farmers and traders, were reportedly killed following a resurgence of communal conflict over a longstanding land dispute in Oku Iboku community in Itu LGA, Akwa Ibom state. The villagers were reportedly attacked by militias from neighboring Ikot Offiong community in Odukpani LGA, Cross River state.

Cult Violence: In March, five people were reportedly killed during a clash between members of the Vikings and Iceland confraternities in Urua Ekpa community, Uyo LGA. In April, four students were reportedly killed during a clash between rival cult groups at a university in Uyo, the state capital.

Violent Criminality: In March, a soldier was reportedly killed by another soldier during a disagreement at a beach in Ikot Abasi LGA. Separately, a 45-year old member of the National Union of Road Transport Workers (NURTW) was reportedly killed by four policemen during a disagreement at Itam motor park in Uyo, the state capital. In April, kidnapers reportedly killed a security operative and abducted an expatriate working with a construction company in Uruan LGA. In May, a student of the Akwa Ibom State University was reportedly killed by robbers at Ikot Okoro Road, Oruk Anam LGA. Separately, hoodlums reportedly attacked Ekpenyong Atai village in Essien Udim LGA and chased away residents including the village head.

Domestic Violence: In April, a male pastor was reportedly killed by his younger brother during a disagreement over a domestic issue in Uyo, the state capital.

Other Fatalities: In April, it was reported that 14 people were killed by water borne diseases in Okoro-Utip community, Ibeno LGA. The outbreak of the diseases was reportedly caused by the activities of some oil companies operating in the area.

Protest: In May, a group of 'Persons Living with Disabilities' protested in Uyo, the state capital, over delay in the passage of a law that prohibits discrimination against persons with disabilities in the state.

Recent Incidents or Issues, June 2019

Incidents during this period mainly related to communal conflict and protest.

Communal conflict: During the month, three people were reportedly killed during a clash between Ikot Osute and Ikot Ukpong communities, Oruk Anam LGA. The conflict was reportedly triggered by a love affair between two residents of these communities.

Protest: Youths protested against an oil company over issues relating to employment in Eket LGA. The youths barricaded the operational base of the company during the protest.

Prognosis

Conflict risk and violence during this period were driven mainly by communal conflict, criminality, cult violence, domestic violence, disease outbreak and protests. Peace actors should monitor the situation closely and respond appropriately.

Questions for Peace Agents

1. Is there anything missing from the tracker in terms of hotspots, trends, or incidents?
2. Which conflict issue suggested by, or missing from, this tracker is a priority for you (as P4P Chapter, Prevent Committee, or other stakeholder)?
3. What are some likely trigger events in the next 6 months that could escalate this conflict?
4. Who are the key stakeholders that have influence on the conflict?
5. What will you do to help mitigate the conflict in the short, medium, and long term?
