

Niger Delta Weekly Conflict Update

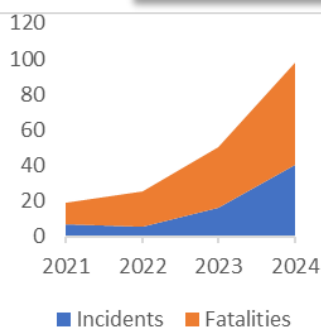

Pathways to Mitigating Cult-Related Gang Violence in Edo State

April 27 - May 03, 2025

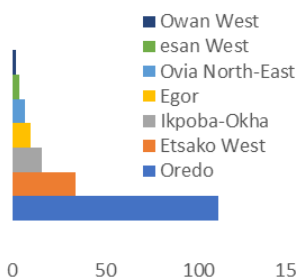

This update highlights the rising threat of organized criminal violence in the Niger Delta, focusing on cult-related gang violence in Edo State. Cult-related violence remains one of the key drivers of insecurity in the state. Recent data indicate a resurgence of violent clashes between cult groups, causing over 10 fatalities in the past two weeks.

Anticipated Trends and Dynamics

The recent escalation of gang violence poses a serious threat to communal harmony and security in the state. Clashes between rival cult gangs could trigger a cycle of reprisal killings, potentially leading to widespread hooliganism and a breakdown of law and order.

Actions Taken to Mitigate the Situation

Stakeholders are working to address cult-related gang violence in the state. In response, the Edo State Government recently enacted the Secret Cult and Similar Activities (Prohibition) Law, 2025, which prescribes a 21-year jail term for individuals involved in cult activities.
